

LEADERSHIP IN SPORTS LAW (SOUTHEAST ASIA)

ONLINE CERTIFICATE COURSE

COURSE FEE – CHF 290

START DATE: 01.12.2025

REGISTER NOW: info@alss-edu.ch

Course Introduction

Leadership in Sports Law (Southeast Asia) is an 8-hour online course offered by the Academy of Leadership Sciences Switzerland (ALSS).

The course is designed and delivered by recognized experts in Sports Law. It is being offered as an open course and can be attended by anyone who is, or aspires to get, involved in the industry of sports - including sports administrators, lawyers, sports agents, or intermediaries, current and former athletes, among others.

Course content

The course covers specific topics on sport-related issues including an introduction into sports law, sport governing bodies, sports governance, sports integrity, anti-doping, dispute resolution, Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS) and other topics.

Accreditation and certification

The Academy of Leadership Sciences Switzerland (ALSS) is an international education institution that offers continuing education, further education, and post graduate advanced education courses, workshops and programs focusing on advanced studies in Leadership and Management. The ALSS also offers short courses that are not credit-bearing, and do not lead to formal qualifications. All attendees who attend for the Leadership in Sports Law (Southeast Asia) course will be awarded certificates of successful attendance by the ALSS.

Course Structure

Session

1

Introduction to Sports Law and Southeast Asia (2 hours)

- Sports Law in General
- Governance and structure (international federations, regional federations, national federations)
- ASEAN framework and how it affects regional competitions (like the SEA Games)
- Local framework and how it affects sports law, with a focus on Philippine sports law and examples

Session 2

Understanding Anti-Doping in Sports (2 hours)

- Structure of Anti-Doping
- WADA and the WADA Code
- Adjudication of Anti-Doping Cases

Session 3

Rules of Integrity in Sports (2 hours)

- Anti-Doping
- Anti-Corruption / Bribery
- Match-Fixing / Spot Betting
- CAS Cases on Integrity

Session 4

Anti-doping (2 hours)

- Disputes and differences - private tribunals and courts
- Briefer on the Court of Arbitration for Sport
- Dispute resolution mechanisms in South East Asia, with particular reference to Malaysia and Philippines sports law dispute mechanisms
- Emerging issues in sports law (safe sport, inclusion, etc)

Duration of the Course:

8 hours, delivered from 1 to 4 December, with two-hour live webinars each day at 18:00 Malaysia time.

Language

English

Start Date

01.12.2025

Study Options

100 % online per Zoom

Admission Requirements

Anyone who is, or aspires to get, involved in the industry of sports can enrol for this course.

Internet access and an email address are required.

Tutorial fees for the whole course

CHF 290 to be paid at least two days before the course starts.

CHF 190 for NGO and Students

Course Presenters

Richard Wee

Richard Wee is a Malaysian sports lawyer with over 20 years of legal experience. He specializes in sports law and dispute resolution and holds a Certificate in Sports Arbitration from the Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC). Richard has served on numerous legal and disciplinary bodies, including appointments by FIFA and the Football Association of Malaysia to the Appeals Committee of the National Dispute Resolution Chamber (NDRC). He also serves on the Disciplinary Commission and Arbitral Board of the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI).

Mickey Ingles is a Filipino sports lawyer and academic specializing in sports law, taxation, and gaming law. He is a faculty member at Ateneo Law School, where he teaches Sports Law and Constitutional Law.

Mickey has served as a consultant and legal counsel for various national sports associations and athletes, and he is the author of the first comprehensive book on sports law in the Philippines, Sports Law in the Philippines. He is also an arbitrator at the Philippine Dispute Resolution Center.

Mickey Ingles,